SAN FERNANDO POLICE IDENTIFY THE SUSPECT IN PASTOR RUDY TRUJILLO ASSAULT

San Fernando, CA - On Wednesday, March 22, 2017, at approximately 11 am, Pastor Rudy Trujillo was assaulted by a male suspect while exiting his vehicle in the 700 block of North Maclay Avenue. Upon the officer's arrival, the suspect had fled the scene. As a result of the assault, Pastor Trujillo suffered serious injuries that required hospitalization.

Through follow-up investigation, including interviewing of witnesses and review of video footage, the suspect has been identified in this case as Henry Dominguez Chacon who resides in the Pacoima, CA. Chacon is described as a male, Hispanic, 53 years of age, black hair, brown eyes, 5'11" with an approximate weight of 210 pounds. The San Fernando Police Department (SFPD) is currently in the process of filing criminal charges with the District Attorney's office.

SFPD Officials ask that Mr. Chacon contact the SFPD in order to provide his statement. Further, the SFPD asks any witnesses to the incident to please contact the SFPD Detective Division at (818) 898-1261.
